

Some AAUW Members* of Note

- Elizabeth Campbell, public broadcasting pioneer, founder of WETA, Washington, DC
- Former Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm, first African American woman elected to Congress and to seek a major party nomination for president of the United States
- Johnnetta Cole, former president of Bennett College, formerly first African American woman president of Spelman College
- Betty Friedan, a leader of the women's movement, author of The Feminine Mystique
- Harriet Mayor Fulbright, philanthropist, education and arts advocate, president of The Fulbright Center
- Nan Keohane, former president of Duke University and Wellesley College
- Coretta Scott King, "first lady of the civil rights movement," inspirational global leader for social change
- Former Congresswoman Patsy Mink, key leader on the passage of the landmark Title IX legislation, first woman of color elected to Congress
- Governor Janet Napolitano, governor of Arizona, education advocate
- Janet Reno, first woman Attorney General of the United States
- Governor Ann Richards, former governor of Texas, educator, civil rights and economic justice advocate
- Brig. General Wilma Vaught, USAF (retired), one of the most highly decorated military women in U.S. history

* Listing includes current, previous (including deceased) members.