Alaska

United States and Canada
August 1-8 (Free Airfare)

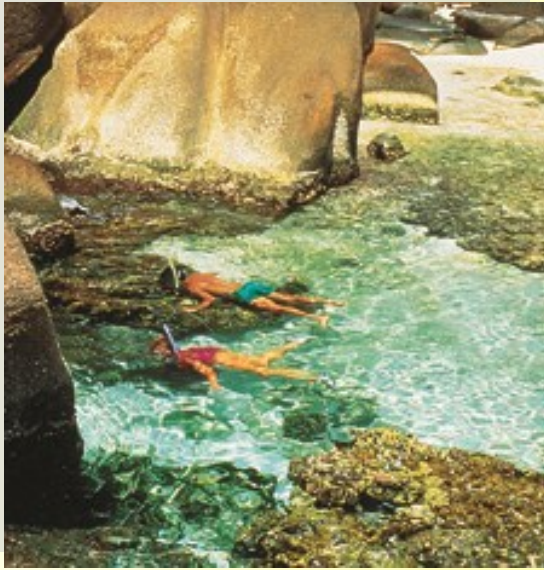

This six star cruise is a nonstop, exhilarating visual tour as passengers sail beside the spellbinding Sawyer and Hubbard Glaciers in the Alaskan Gulf. Considered the last of the great American Frontiers, travelers will get an invigorating experience on and off the ship. Whether personally venturing through glaciers in Skagway or stepping step back in time at urban attractions like the Red Dog Saloon, passengers will receive the full effect of what Alaska has to offer. While on board, luxury is taken to a new level, with butler service, a world class spa, and other amenities there for your enjoyment.

The Black Sea

Turkey, Ukraine, Romania, Bulgaria
September 25- October 3 (Free Airfare)

From magnificent palaces to exquisite Mosques, this cruise focuses on the captivating treasures of Turkish and Eastern European design. History unfolds on this voyage as passengers see the ancient underground city of Kaymakli, UNESCO World Heritage sites, and also the pivotal site of the 1945 Yalta Conference. Architectural wonders are located at every stop as you visit former summer homes of the Czars of Russia. Passengers will also enjoy cocktails on a sunset cruise with the iconic Turkish skyline as they blissfully sail down the Bosphorus Strait.

Lesser Antilles

San Juan, St. Lucia, Guadeloupe, St. Barts, St. Maarten, St. John's
March 22-29 (Free Airfare)

Once aboard this six-star, all-suite cruise ship travelers will begin their island hopping vacation fantasy. From remote seascapes to the culture filled island towns, passengers will get to dip their toes in various pristine beaches, meet locals at the open-air markets of Pointe-à-Pitre, Guadeloupe, and be awestruck by the panoramic view of the famous mountain peaks, Gros and Petit Pitons. This luxurious small cruise ship avoids the “mega” cruise feeling, giving its travelers a peaceful and personal island voyage.

Tahiti and French Polynesia

Tahiti, Raiatea, Taha'a, Bora Bora, Moorea
February 14-24 (Free Airfare)

The idyllic beaches of the lush French Polynesian Islands will immediately inspire and captivate you on board this ten day cruise. You will get to explore the Faarumai waterfalls, snorkel and swim in the refreshing lagoons and crystal clear waters, see firsthand the ancient customs of the Bora Bora islanders, and tour one of the best preserved temple complexes in Polynesia, the Tauatea's Taputanuatea Marae. Travelers can also take advantage of museum tours of the islands including an exclusive Paul Gauguin excursion to the west coast of Tahiti where visitors will see the sites préférés of various artists.
