

What can the Leadership Corps do for you?

The AAUW Leadership Corps of volunteer field organizers from across the country concentrates on talent scouting, branch development, and mentoring future leaders. Committed to strengthening AAUW and trained to seek out potential leaders in our midst, the AAUW Leadership Corps is here for you!

At the member level, the Leadership Corps ...

- Connects members to other members, branches, and state leaders throughout the country
- Facilitates resource and idea sharing
- Connects members with state leaders and staff to help organize new branches

At the branch level, the Leadership Corps ...

- Supports branch leadership development and mentors new branch leaders
- Assists with leadership transitions and membership growth, retention, and revitalization
- Connects branch leaders around the country
- Assists with mission-based program development
- Provides communication channels about current AAUW activities, priorities, successes, and challenges

At the state level, the Leadership Corps ...

- Develops interstate connections among officers and provides assistance with leadership transition, state-based administration, and programming activities
- Facilitates resource and idea sharing
- Provides communication channels about current AAUW activities, priorities, successes, and challenges
