Dear Miss Smith:

This is in answer to your letter of 9 February concerning Miss Helen C. Henry and to say that we would be willing for her to come here, either for the academic year or the calendar year, beginning on or about September, 1955. From our previous experience we have found that persons in such a position profit best not by taking formal courses but by working in the laboratory with an experienced investigator. Under these circumstances it is not possible to offer the opportunity for acquiring a formal degree. If Miss Henry is willing to come under these conditions, I shall transmit the necessary information through University channels so that you may then have the necessary statement of admission, including classification for purposes indicated in your letter.

Sincerely,

Jonas E. Salk, M. D.
