AAUW is developing the next generation of talented and diverse girls and women in information and communications technologies (ICTs) in schools and workplaces globally. Our expert panel will inform, inspire, and provide tools, strategies, new online curricula, and a playbook of tactics for successfully advancing girls and women in ICT.

AAUW salutes the 62nd UN Commission on the Status of Women, UN Women, the NGO Committee on the Status of Women, and advocates for women and girls worldwide.
