Co-Sponsor and Support Swift Passage of the Paycheck Fairness Act (S. 270)

January 29, 2020

Dear Senator:

When the U.S. Women’s National Soccer team lifted the World Cup trophy in France last summer, an entire stadium chanted “equal pay.” It was a powerful reminder of the persistence of the wage gap and pay discrimination for women in this country, who are still waiting for federal reform. As members of a broad coalition of organizations that promote economic opportunity for women and vigorous enforcement of antidiscrimination laws, we strongly urge you to co-sponsor and push for swift passage of the Paycheck Fairness Act (S. 270), a much needed update to the Equal Pay Act of 1963. The House of Representatives already passed this important legislation (H.R. 7) during the first session of Congress; now the Senate must act.

There is no more fitting way to begin the second session of this Congress than by paying tribute to the World Cup champions and honoring Lilly Ledbetter, whose Fair Pay Act passed eleven years ago today. The Paycheck Fairness Act updates and strengthens the Equal Pay Act of 1963 to ensure that it provides robust protection against sex-based pay discrimination. Among other provisions, this comprehensive bill bars retaliation against workers who voluntarily discuss or disclose their wages. It closes loopholes that have allowed employers to pay women less than men for the same work without any important business justification related to the job. It ensures women can receive the same robust remedies for sex-based pay discrimination that are currently available to those subjected to discrimination based on race and ethnicity. It prohibits employers from relying on salary history in determining future pay, so that pay discrimination does not follow women from job to job. And it also provides much needed training and technical assistance, as well as data collection and research.

Women are increasingly the primary or co-breadwinner in their families and cannot afford to be shortchanged any longer. Women working full-time, year-round are typically paid only 82 cents for every dollar paid to men, and when we compare women of color to white, non-Hispanic men, the pay gaps are even larger. Moms are paid less than dads. And even when controlling for factors, such as education and experience, the pay gaps persist and start early in women’s careers and contribute to a wealth gap that follows them throughout their lifetimes. These pay gaps can be addressed only if workers have the legal tools necessary to challenge discrimination and when employers are provided with effective incentives and technical assistance to comply with the law.

It’s time to take the next step toward achieving equal pay. We urge you to prioritize the Paycheck Fairness Act (S. 270) in the final year of the 116th Congress by co-sponsoring and urging swift passage of this legislation and taking up the cause of all those who have fought for equal pay.
