

AAUW It's My Vote! Resource Guide

July 8, 2026

This guide is a non-exhaustive list of nonpartisan election and voter engagement resources intended to support AAUW members, branches, and affiliates in helping voters in their communities show up informed and ready at the ballot box. In this guide, you'll find:

1. Trusted Election Resources
2. Community-Specific Resources
3. Campus Resources
4. Election Protection Resources
5. Free & Printable Materials

TRUSTED ELECTION RESOURCES

Voters should look to trusted sources of information about elections, including vetted nonpartisan organizations and state and county boards of elections.

AAUW Election Resources: www.aauw.org/ItsMyVote

AAUW and AAUW Action Fund's It's My Vote! campaign gives women the tools, information, and confidence to make their voices heard in elections. Visit our Election Resources hub to find:

- 2026 Civic Engagement Guide
- Guidelines for Election Activities
- "It's My Vote Because" blank signs
- How to Organize an Issue or Candidate Forum
- And more!

Vote411: www.vote411.org (English) / www.vote411.org/es (Spanish)

Administered by the League of Women Voters Education Fund

AAUW is a Grassroots Power Partner with the League of Women Voters US, National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW), and YWCA USA on Unite & Rise 8.5, a campaign to engage 8.5 million people in civic education, community activation, and voter turnout. Find your local League here and reach out about opportunities for collaboration!

Vote411 is a one-stop-shop for election information. On their website, voters can:

- Register to vote

- Check your voter registration
- Make a plan to vote
- See what's on your ballot
- See voting information by state

When We All Vote: www.whenweallvote.org

Administered by Civic Nation

When We All Vote is a national initiative to increase participation in every election, close the race and age voting gaps, and change the culture around voting. On their website, voters can:

- Register to vote
- Check voter registration
- Make a plan to vote
- See voting information by state

Rock the Vote: www.rockthevote.org

Rock the Vote is a nonprofit organization dedicated to building the political power of young people. On their website, voters can:

- Register to vote
- Check voter registration
- Request an absentee ballot
- Sign up for election reminders
- See voting information by state

VoteRiders: www.voteriders.org

VoteRiders provides free voter ID assistance, including setting up appointments and covering costs to obtain IDs. Visit their website: www.voteriders.org/freehelp or call/text the helpline: 866-432-8683.

- Check your state's voter ID rules: www.voteriders.org/staterules, including information specific to Native voters, naturalized citizens, student voters, trans and nonbinary voters, and voters with disabilities.

Reclaim Our Vote: www.centerforcommonground.org/reclaim-our-vote

Administered by the Center for Common Ground

Reclaim Our Vote is a grassroots, primarily volunteer-run campaign that focuses on increasing BIPOC voter turnout through post-carding, texting, and phone banking. They educate voters on early voting locations and times, voter registration deadlines, information for free rides to the polls, and phone numbers for county election officials.

- Sign up to send postcards to voters: www.centerforcommonground.org/postcards.
Organize a postcard party for your branch or community!

COMMUNITY-SPECIFIC RESOURCES

¡Ve y Vota!: www.naleo.org/vote

Administered by the NALEO Educational Fund

The ¡Ve y Vota! campaign is a comprehensive civic participation strategy designed to remove barriers to full Latino electoral participation. Voters who have questions or who experience issues at the polls can call the hotline: 888-VE-Y-VOTA (888-839-8682).

Voto Latino: www.votolatino.org

Voto Latino is a civic engagement organization focused on educating and empowering a new generation of Latinx voters, as well as creating a more robust and inclusive democracy.

NAACP: www.naacp.org/campaigns/power-your-vote

The NAACP's Power Your Vote campaign provides resources on issues that affect Black Americans and options to register to vote, check voter registration, or request an absentee ballot. Voters who experience issues at the polls can report the incident to NAACP's Voter Protection team online or call the hotline: 866-OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683) for immediate assistance.

National Coalition on Black Civic Participation (NCBCP): www.ncbcp.org

The National Coalition on Black Civic Participation (NCBCP) is a nonprofit national civil rights organization dedicated to increasing civic engagement, voter participation, equal and equitable opportunities in Black and underserved urban and rural communities.

Asian and Pacific Islander American Vote (APIAVote): www.apiavote.org

APIAVote is a nonprofit organization dedicated to engaging, educating, and empowering Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) communities to strengthen and sustain a culture of civic engagement. Voters who have questions or who experience issues at the polls can call the hotline: 888-API-VOTE (888-274-8683).

Native Vote: www.nativevote.org

Administered by the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI)

Native Vote is a campaign designed to encourage American Indian and Alaska Native people to build power by exercising their right to vote. Native Vote works to mobilize, educate, protect, and evaluate the impact of the American Indian and Alaska Native vote.

HeadCount: www.headcount.org/vote-with-pride

HeadCount is a national organization that uses the power of music, culture, and community to turn fans into voters. Their Vote With Pride campaign offers LGBTQ+ voter resources including registration help, ID guidance for transgender and non-binary voters, and state-specific information.

CAMPUS RESOURCES

Get out the #CampusVote with resources tailored to student voters and tried-and-true strategies to collaborate with local colleges and universities.

Students Learn Students Vote (SLSV) Coalition: www.slsvcoalition.org

Administered by NEO Philanthropy

The Students Learn Students Vote (SLSV) Coalition is a national network of campus, nonprofit, community, student, and philanthropic leaders dedicated to increasing college student voter participation.

- Check out SLSV's Nonprofit Campus Partnership Guide to learn more about innovative strategies and best practices for collaborating with college and university campus voting coalitions.

Campus Vote Project: www.campusvoteproject.org

Administered by the Fair Election Center

The Campus Vote Project provides student voting guides with state-specific information on:

- Registration deadlines and election dates
- Official election websites
- Voter registration at school or home
- What types of IDs are needed to register and vote
- How and where to vote
- and other common questions and concerns.

Civic Holidays Campus Takeover: www.civicholidays.org/campus-takeover

Campus Takeover is a nationwide effort to mobilize students around elections and to create a culture of civic engagement on college campuses during the Civic Holidays. Student organizations, campus offices, and community organizations are all welcome to partner and receive resources.

- Visit their website for step-by-step guides to organize different Civic Holiday events (National Voter Registration Day, National Voter Education Week, and Vote Early Day), webinars to workshop strategies, and additional materials.

ALL IN Campus Democracy Challenge: www.allinchallenge.org

Administered by Civic Nation

The ALL IN Campus Democracy Challenge is a national awards program that recognizes colleges and universities for their commitment to increasing student voter participation. They provide action planning and campus engagement resources to support schools in institutionalizing nonpartisan democratic engagement.

- Search for participating campuses in your state: www.allinchallenge.org/participating-campuses.

ELECTION PROTECTION RESOURCES

Mis- and disinformation are widespread in elections, especially during federal election cycles. Misinformation may consist of false rumors and misconceptions about elections, while disinformation could be targeted messages spread to purposely mislead voters.

Voters should look to nonpartisan organizations and websites that specialize in verifying political claims, debunking rumors, and analyzing election-related misinformation.

FactCheck.org: www.factcheck.org

Administered by the University of Pennsylvania Anneberg Public Policy Center

FactCheck.org is a nonprofit website that monitors the factual accuracy of political statements, ads, and debates.

PolitiFact: www.politifact.com

Administered by the Poynter Institute for Media Studies

PolitiFact is a nonprofit national news organization that focuses on fact-checking political statements and campaign promises, offering a “Truth-O-Meter” to rank the accuracy of claims.

Snopes: www.snopes.com

Snopes is one of the oldest and most trusted websites for debunking rumors, urban legends, and misinformation, including election-related claims.

Election Protection: www.866ourvote.org

Administered by the Lawyers’ Committee for Civil Rights Under Law

Election Protection provides voter support and assistance, including a hotline for reporting any issues at polling places. They also offer information about voter rights and how to resolve problems with voting.

- If your voting rights are challenged at the polls, document and report the problem. Call or text the hotline: 866-OUR-VOTE (866-687-8683) as soon as you experience an issue.
 - Spanish/English: 888-VE-Y-VOTA (888-839-8682)
 - Asian Languages/English: 888-API-VOTE (888-274-8683)
 - Arabic/English: 844-YALLA-US (844-925-5287)

Power the Polls: www.powerthepolls.org

Power the Polls recruits potential poll workers and provides localized poll worker information across the United States. Poll workers play a critical role in ensuring safe and fair elections for all voters. Sign up for more information on staffing your local polling place:

www.powerthepolls.org/signup#form.

FREE & PRINTABLE MATERIALS

Like AAUW, many organizations offer free materials you can print at home and bring to branch or community events like candidate forums, town halls, or campus fairs.

AAUW branches and affiliates can also request free It's My Vote! stickers, pins, and blank signs to be mailed to them. Submit the form here.

- AAUW: www.aauw.org/app/uploads/2024/07/Its-My-Vote-sign.pdf
 - Download and print blank “It’s My Vote Because” signs that prompt voters to share why voting is important to them.
 - Post your signs on social media to inspire more voters! Tag us on Instagram (@aauwnational) and Facebook (@AAUW.National).
- National Voter Registration Day: www.nationalvoterregistrationday.org/posters-and-stickers
 - Download and print stickers and posters you can customize with local voting information.
 - AAUW is a proud partner of National Voter Registration Day. Sign up your branch or affiliate as a community partner to have materials sent to you for free!
- Vote Early Day: www.voteearlyday.org/diy-swag
 - Download and print posters, stickers, placards, and blank “My Plan to Vote” postcards (available in 34 languages).
 - AAUW is a proud partner of National Vote Early Day. Sign up your branch or affiliate as a community partner to have materials sent to you for free!
- Nonprofit VOTE: www.nonprofitvote.org/resource/printable-materials
 - Download and print tools for talking with voters in person or at events, including:
 - How to Talk to Voters
 - Active Listening Tool
 - “Why Vote?” Tool
 - Voter Registration Form Poster
- VoteRiders: www.voteriders.org/partner/cards
 - Request pocket-sized voter ID info cards for your state in English/Spanish. Cards for all 50 states and D.C. are also available to download and print at home.